Data and history of the figure:

The fishermen Nicolau and Remediets appeared to the city of Alicante the 15 of April of year 2007 in an encounter of giants and bigheaded and organized for this aim.

Were constructed by Victor Pons Arnau and Salvador Sempere Urios.

They are a tribute to the sailors of Alicante, the fishermen of the Raval Roig and the Island of Tabarca and to the workers of the historical port of the city.

They take the names of the landlords of Alicante, San Nicholas and the Virgin of the Remedy.

Nicolau and Remediets are the youngest pair of the eight giant puppets of Alicante and were the first giants in the history of more than 500 years of the Romería of Santa Faz that peregrinated to their monastery, located to more than 8 kilometers of the city, being everything an event.
